american modernist epic argues that during the 1920s and 30s a cadre of minority novelists revitalized the classic epic form in an effort to recast the united states according to modern diverse and pluralistic grounds rather than adhere to the reification of static culture as did ancient verse epic in their prose epics gertrude stein and john dos passos utilized recursion bricolage and polyphony to represent the multifarious immediacy and movement of the modern world meanwhile h t tsiang and richard wright created absurd and insipid anti heroes for their epics contesting the hegemony of anglo and capitalist dominance in the united states in all i posit these modernist epic novels undermined and revised the foundational ideology of the united states contesting notions of individualism progress and racial hegemony while modernizing the epic form in an effort to refound the nation the marriage of this classical form to modernist principles produced transcendent literature and offered a strenuous challenge to the interwar status quo yet ultimately proved a failure longstanding american ideology was simply too fixed and widespread to be entirely dislodged
