as a writer i mainly focus on relationships all the perils concerned with becoming involved in and maintaining a relationship with the opposite sex as women are emotional creatures they sometimes feel that they must have an emotional relationship before beginning a sexual relationship while men are usually more visual and physical by nature they are turned on by physical contact and visual stimuli but women need so much more than that women need emotional and spiritual nurturing while men tend to lack understanding in that area of women's needs when the two come together this tremendous lack of understanding causes an abundance of pain and heartache women are left feeling under appreciated neglected and unloved men on the other hand usually don't understand what the problem is in the relationship we often assume they will not understand there is also a gap in communication which furthers the stress we feel as a writer i attempt to explain this pain and heartache that women so often go through because of these misunderstandings but in the end we must eventually turn to a real relationship with god in order to reach the fullest potential that life has to offer

i am in the f s p f s p stands for field security personnel that is the authorized version so begins this remarkable account of six months service with the british expeditionary force in france up to and including the terrible retreat to and evacuation from the beaches of dunkirk at the end of may 1940 absorbing affecting thrilling often funny this book is very different from other war memoirs it was the first on the ground account of dunkirk to be published in 1942 and lacks nothing in the immediacy of its telling the narrative is gripping and the style is revolutionary immersing the readers in the emotional and psychological turbulence of the author's experience and making them feel they are living through it themselves the result is a stunningly authentic and involving record of one of the defining episodes of twentieth century british history editor n h reeve provides a lucid critical and biographical afterword and includes two extracts from an unfinished work by gwynn browne in which his idiosyncratic stream of consciousness style is used to describe the london blitz and the mood of the civilian population in wartime
